

Looking to Improve Your Personal Finance Knowledge?

Dr. Barbara O'Neill, Rutgers University, will be teaching a 3 credit undergraduate Personal Finance course during the summer of 2009. Graduate credit is also possible with the completion of additional assignments.

Personal Finance Course, 11:373:353 (01)

Department of Agricultural, Food, and Resource Economics
Rutgers University, School of Environmental and Biological Sciences

Summer Session III, Summer 2009, July 6-August 12, 2009 (M, T, W, Th from 8:30 am to 10:20 am)

For specifics about the course, see <http://rci.rutgers.edu/~boneill/>

Home | About the Professor | Assignments | Exam Review Games | Presentations/Lectures | Syllabus

Course Vision:

Develop a class of financially literate students who will be financially secure today and in the future. They will have knowledge, skills, and confidence to take charge of their financial future and prosper.

Course Objectives:

1. Students will increase their understanding of personal finance concepts.
2. Students will develop critical thinking skills with respect to financial planning concepts.
3. Students will appreciate the awesome power of compound interest as both a friend and an enemy.
4. Students will apply the knowledge gained to their personal financial situation.
5. Students will become financially responsible adults who save regularly and use credit wisely.

Instructor:

Dr. Barbara O'Neill, CFP®, Extension Specialist in Financial Resource Management, Professor II, and author or co-author of eight personal finance books

For Further Information:

For information about course content, contact Dr. O'Neill at oneill@aesop.rutgers.edu

For information about Rutgers University Summer Session class sessions, tuition, and course listings (look for Environmental and Business Economics), see <http://summersession.rutgers.edu/>.